

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Good food, good company ... The party is a success!

Learning Outcome

Describe routines and regular activities in a wider range of social and work contexts.

Ask your partner:

- Have you ever been to a party that you didn't like?
- How was it? Why didn't you like it?
- What were the other guests like? Describe them.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about people's behavior and personality.
- I can talk about future actions, plans and intentions.
- I can respond politely to suggestions and offers.

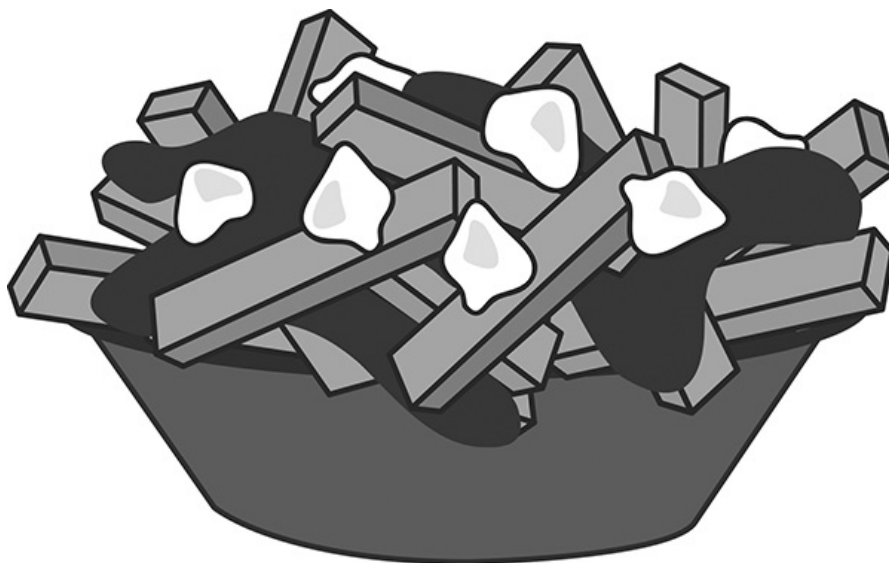

Let's Explore!

Sally can be quite cunning when it comes to getting interviews with famous people!

* A "cunning" person is someone who can trick others into doing something.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: This little party is going quite well! I think the pulled pork and poutine were a success.
- Sally: You bet! Luther had three helpings. You know what he said to me? He'll try poutine every day when he goes to Canada. That's high praise, if you ask me!
- Vanessa: What is he going to do there?
- Sally: He has a few shows lined up. He's leaving in the next couple of days.
- Vanessa: How do you know all this?
- Sally: You know me, V. I'm a social butterfly! I'm always curious.
- Vanessa: I just think you sound a bit nosy sometimes ...
- Sally: Don't worry about that! I let my wide-eyed demeanor fool everyone.
- Vanessa: I guess you're extremely convincing, then.
- Sally: For sure. I get a lot of interviews that way! Would you like me to share some of my tricks?
- Vanessa: Perhaps ... I would definitely get more chefs to reveal their secrets that way!
- Sally: That's very cunning. I like that!
- Vanessa: Anyway, I'll pack some leftovers for Luther before he leaves.
- Sally: I'll give them to him. I have an interview at 10 tomorrow.

Let's Practice!

Sally has an interesting personality.

Instructions: Spell the mystery word. Write the word on the line.

1. r c u i u s o _____
2. r n e d o m a e _____
3. d y e d w e - e i _____
4. n c g u n n i _____
5. n o y s _____
6. i v o n c i n n _____

Let's Practice!

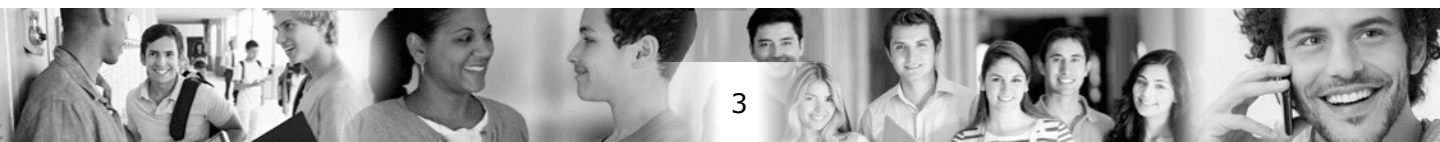

What does the future hold for Luther?

Instructions: Complete the sentences using the word bank.

Word Bank

going to / will / 'll try / has / leaving

1. He _____ poutine every day in Canada.
2. What is he _____ do there?
3. He's _____ in the next couple of days.
4. Vanessa _____ pack some leftovers for him before he leaves.
5. Sally _____ an interview with him tomorrow at 10.

Extension Activity

Write about different personality types.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Think of three professions.
- Think about the personality you need to have to have a job in that profession.
- Write 4 adjectives that would describe that profession.
- Would you like to have one of these jobs?
- Talk about the professions with your partner.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I talk about personality and behavior.

☐ ☐

I describe what is necessary.

☐ ☐

I talk about plans for the future.

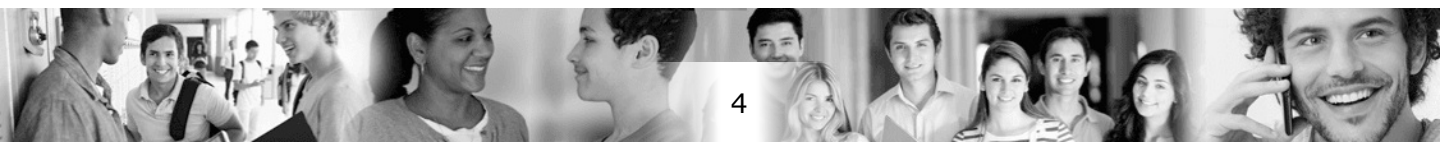

☐ ☐

profession	adjective 1	adjective 2	adjective 3	adjective 4

Target Words

- helping (noun): serving; portion
e.g. Luther had 3 helpings of poutine.
- praise (noun): compliment
e.g. That's high praise, if you ask me!
- curious (adjective): eager to know something
Example: I'm curious about everything!
- nosy (adjective): showing too much interest about other people's lives
e.g. I think you sound a bit nosy sometimes.
- wide-eyed (adjective): having one's eyes wide open in amazement; naive
Example: People often think I'm wide-eyed and innocent!
- demeanor (noun): behavior
Example: My wide-eyed demeanor gets me many interviews!
- convincing (adjective): persuasive
e.g. I guess you're extremely convincing, then.
- to fool (verb): to trick or deceive someone
Example: I let my wide-eyed demeanor fool everyone.

Learning Points

Talking About Future Actions

You can use four different tenses to talk about the future.

- When you talk about voluntary actions and promises or threats, you use the future with will. You use will when you make a decision at the moment of speaking.
- You use going to for future plans, and for predictions based on evidence in the present situation.
- When you talk about things that are arranged, on the agenda or booked for the future, you use the Present Continuous tense.
- When you talk about schedules or timetables in the future, you use the Simple Present tense.

Will	I'll pack some leftovers for Luther.
Going to	What is he going to do there?
Present Continuous	He's leaving in the next couple of days.
Simple Present tense	I have an interview at 10 tomorrow.

Learning Points

Respond Politely to Suggestions and Offers

When someone offers suggestions, it is important to respond politely.

Remember to use the modals could, should or might to suggest something.

Here is a list of expressions you can use to give suggestions:

- You might want to ...
- Would you mind ... ?
- You should ...
- You ought to ... (strong request)

Offering Suggestions	Responding to Offers and Suggestions
• Would you like ... ? • Can I get you ... ? • Would you mind ... ?	• I don't think I can ... • I guess that could ... • That would be ... • I would ... • Don't mind if I do!

Examples:

- Ann: Would you like me to share some of my tricks?
- Bob: Perhaps ... I would definitely get more chefs to reveal their secrets that way!

