

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

It's time to cook up a storm!

Learning Outcome

Describe routines and regular activities in a wider range of social and work contexts.

Ask your partner:

- Do you like to organize parties?
- How many people do you usually invite?
- When is the next party you are going to?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about quantities and amounts.
- I can respond politely to suggestions and offers.
- I can talk about future actions, plans and intentions.

Let's Explore!

Vanessa and Marco are going through a rough patch. Will she invite him for the dinner party?

* "A rough patch" is a difficult moment in your relationship.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sally: So, when are we going to have that party, Vanessa?
- Vanessa: I don't think I can have it next week. I'll have a couple of busy nights at the restaurant. I have a few VIP guests coming in, and they'll be a handful, I'm sure.
- Sally: OK. I get the idea. How about the week after? Will you be free then?
- Vanessa: Yeah, I guess that can work.
- Sally: Let's think about who we will invite. I'm thinking a dozen guests, maybe? Is that too few?
- Vanessa: Are you kidding? Sounds like too many mouths to feed. How about 6, or 8?
- Sally: Well, that would be just enough to sustain a proper conversation.
- Vanessa: That's right! That way, I can also whip up something decent ...
- Sally: You're in charge of the menu. I'll take care of the invites. Is Marco going to be there?
- Vanessa: Yeah, I guess he's coming ... We're going through a rough patch right now, but we're trying to sort things out. I'm sure Deanna and Michael will want to come as well. I'll notify them tomorrow.

Let's Practice!

When should Vanessa throw that party? Sally offers some suggestions.

Instructions: Organize the mystery sentence. Write each word in the correct order. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

1. How / the / about / week / after?

2. _____
week / . / have / it / think / can / I / I / next / don't

3. _____
enough / just / sustain / conversation / would / a proper / be / that / Well, / to

4. _____
can / whip / something / I / That / way, / up / decent. /

5. _____
could / guess / I / work / that / also / Yeah,

Let's Practice!

What do Sally and Vanessa have in mind for their party?

Instructions: Choose the words from the word bank to correctly complete the sentences.

Word Bank

are we going to / will want to come / I'll have /
Will you be / I'll notify / I'll take

1. So, when _____ (are we going to) have that party?

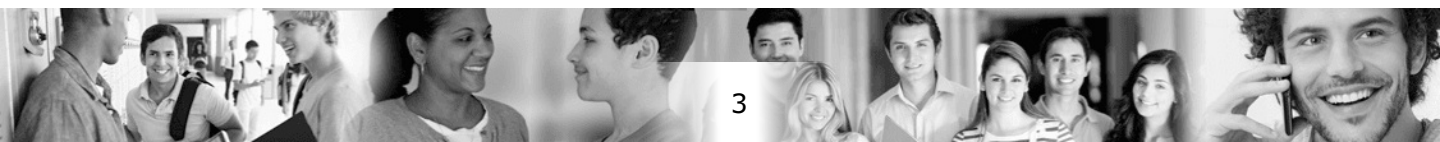

2. _____ a couple of busy nights at the restaurant.

3. _____ free then?

4. _____ care of the invites.

5. I'm sure Deanna and Michael _____ as well.

6. _____ them tomorrow.

Extension Activity

Talk about the next big party you are going to attend.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- With a partner, talk about the parties you usually attend. Describe them.
- Talk about the next party you are going to attend. Is it going to be the same type of party?
- Listen to your partner's description. Do you like that kind of party?
- Offer to invite your partner and reply to your partner's invitation.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I talk about what I want to do in the future.

☐ ☐

I talk about amounts and quantities.

☐ ☐

I offer suggestions and reply to suggestions.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- VIP (noun): Very Important Person; an important guest
e.g. I have a few VIP guests coming next week.
- to whip up (verb): to prepare; to put something together
e.g. I'll whip up something amazing for tomorrow's party.
- to notify (verb): to let someone know about something e.g. I'll notify everyone tomorrow.
- to be a handful (expression): to be difficult to handle e.g. These VIP guests are a handful ...
- to get the idea (expression): to understand
e.g. So your guests are a handful? I get the idea ...
- proper (adjective): correct; adequate e.g. Six to eight guests would be ideal for a proper conversation.
- to sustain (verb): to support; to carry
e.g. 4 or 5 guests would be just enough to sustain a proper conversation.

Learning Points

Talking About Future Actions

You can use four different tenses to talk about the future.

- When you talk about a things that are not decided or when you make a decision at the moment of speaking for the future, you use the modal will.
- When you ask about intentions, you use going to.
- When you talk about things that are arranged, on the agenda or booked for the future, you use the Present Continuous tense.
- When you talk about schedules or timetables in the future, you use the Simple Present tense

Will	I'll take care of the invites.
Going to	When are we going to have that party?
Present Continuous	Marco is coming to the party.
Simple Present tense	I have a couple of VIP guests at the restaurant next week.

Learning Points

Respond Politely to Suggestions and Offers

You use the modals could, should or might to suggest something. When someone offers suggestions, it is important to respond politely.

Here is a list of expressions you can use to give suggestions:

- You might want to ...
- Would you mind ... ?
- You should ...
- You ought to ... (strong request)

Offering Suggestions

- You might want to ...
- Would you mind ... ?
- You should ...
- You ought to ... (strong request)

Responding to Offers and Suggestions

- I don't think I can ...
- I guess that could ...
- That would be ...

Examples:

- How about we have a party next week?
- Yes, I guess that could work.
- I'm thinking a dozen guests, maybe.
- Maybe 6 or 8 would be just enough to have a good conversation.

