

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Let's review!

Learning Outcome

Describe routines and regular activities in a wider range of social and work contexts.

Ask your partner:

- How often do you clean up your place?
- Do you like to keep your place clean?
- How much stuff do you have in your place?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about quantities and amounts.
- I can respond politely to suggestions and offers.
- I can talk about future actions, plans and intentions.

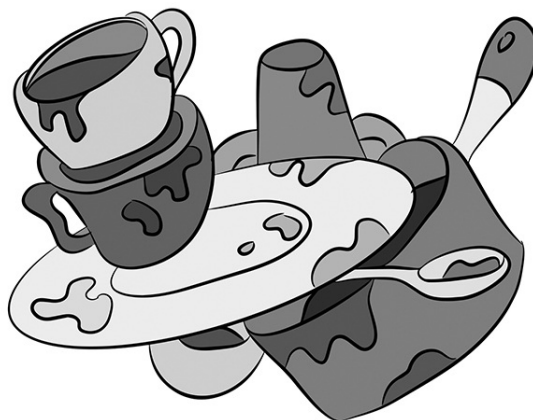

Let's Explore!

Vanessa's apartment looks like a pigsty! It's time to clean up the place.

* A "pigsty" is an enclosure for raising pigs. It is used to describe a messy and dirty place.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sally: This party was great! Everyone had so much fun. The best part is that we have all this food left.
- Vanessa: Look at the state of the dining room! It's a mess. There are plates and glasses everywhere. It's going to take a while to clean it all up.
- Sally: Don't worry, V. I will help you with that.
- Vanessa: Oh thanks, Sally. You're the best. Why don't you start with the kitchen?
- Sally: I think I'd rather stick to the living room. I don't want to mess with your utensils! Besides, there is plenty to do around here, don't you think?
- Vanessa: Alright. You should start by collecting all the empty jars and tins.
- Sally: Sure. I'm picking up the trays after that. We'll put the leftovers in the fridge.
- Vanessa: I'm not sure there is space in there. There are a couple of gallons of juice and a quart of gravy. Honestly, having parties at home is exhausting.
- Sally: Well, we should get started then! I think we deserve a good night's sleep too. Besides, my interview with Luther is tomorrow at 10 ...

Let's Practice!

Vanessa and Sally decide to help each other out.

Instructions: Select all the correct answers.

1. Which sentences are suggestions or responses to offers and suggestions?
 - a. Look at the state of this room!
 - b. The best part is that we have all this food left.
 - c. I think I'd rather stick to the living room.
 - d. There are a couple of gallons of juice.
 - e. Why don't you start with the kitchen?
 - f. I'm not sure there is space in there.
 - g. Everyone had so much fun.
 - h. We should get started, don't you think?
 - i. This party was great.

Let's Practice!

How much food was left after the party?

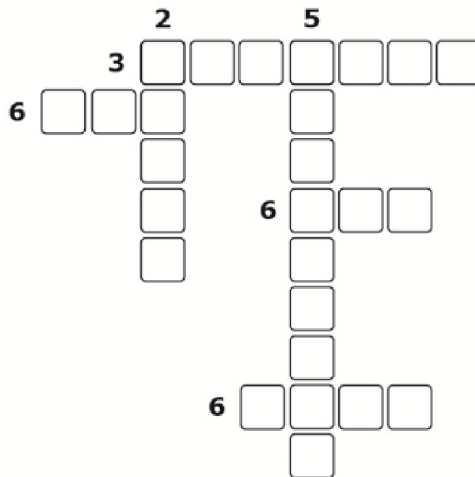

Instructions: Read the clues. Complete the crossword.

Down

2. You pour a ladle of the fat and juices you get from meat after cooking.
5. We'll put the box of I _____ in the fridge.

Across

1. a metal container
3. There are a couple of g _____ of juice in the fridge.
4. a large serving dish
6. a wide-mouthed cylindrical container made of glass

Extension Activity

Write a dialogue about what you want to plan for your holidays.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Write a dialogue (12-14 lines) about your plans for the next holidays.
- With a partner, think of 5 or 6 things to do. Make sure you include:
 - quantities and amounts
 - actions in the future
- Make suggestions and talk about preferences. Express your disagreement about the activities and respond politely.
- Find one suggestion that you both agree on.
- Read your dialogue aloud.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I make suggestions and respond to offers.

☐ ☐

I write a dialogue and read it aloud.

☐ ☐

I talk about what I plan to do in the future.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- jar (noun): a wide-mouthed cylindrical container made of glass
e.g. I want to buy a jar of pickles.
- tin (noun): a metal container
e.g. I need to get a couple of tins of capers.
- gallon (noun): a measuring unit for liquids equal to four quarts (3.5 liters)
e.g. Let's buy a gallon of orange juice.
- tray (noun): a large serving dish
e.g. I'll prepare a tray of hors d'oeuvres.
- leftovers (noun): food left after a meal
e.g. The best part is that you'll have leftovers for days!
- exhausting (adjective): tiring
e.g. Playing gigs all the time sounds exhausting!
- gravy (noun): a sauce made from the fat and juices you get from meat after cooking
Example: The gravy is not ready yet.

Learning Points

Talking About Future Actions

You can use four different tenses to talk about the future.

- When you talk about a things that are not decided or when you make a decision at the moment of speaking for the future, you use the modal will.
- When you ask about intentions, you use going to.
- When you talk about things that are arranged, on the agenda or booked for the future, you use the Present Continuous tense.
- When you talk about schedules or timetables in the future, you use the Simple Present tense.

Will	I will help you with that.
Going to	It's going to take a while to clean it all up.
Present Continuous	I'm picking up the trays after that.
Simple Present tense	My interview is tomorrow at 10.

Learning Points

Respond Politely to Suggestions and Offers

When someone offers suggestions, it is important to respond politely.

Remember to use the modals could, should or might to suggest something.

Here is a list of expressions you can use to give suggestions:

- You might want to ...
- Would you mind ... ?
- You should ...
- You ought to ... (strong request)

Offering Suggestions	Responding to Offers and Suggestions
• Would you like...? • Can I get you ... ? • Would you mind ... ? • Why don't ...	• I don't think I can ... • I guess that could ... • That would be ... • I would ... • I think I'd rather ...

Examples:

- Ann: Why don't you start with the kitchen?
- Bob: I think I'd rather stick to the living room.

